Charts > Top Latin Jazz and Salsa Albums of 2009

by Andy Harlow

Things I Wanted to Do

Chembo Corniel

This one is really on the cutting edge. It burns. Latin Jazz straight from the Big Apple by a master percussionist who deserve wider recognition.

Kenya

Bobby Sanabria

A remake of the classic 50's Machito suite done by the Manhattan School of Music Latin Jazz Ensemble, directed by Bobby Sanabria.

Bueno Pa Gozar

Paul De Castro

Swinging Latin Jazz from L.A. by pianist and Cal State professor Paul De Castro. Features Justo Almarino on sax and flute.

Off & On

Mark Levine

Another Latin Jazz gem from pianist Levine from the San Fransisco Bay Area. This one features the music of Brazilian composer Moacir Santos.

Yo So Ritmo

Paul Lopez Big Band

Great big band sounds by Octogenarain arranger and composer Paul Lopez. Features some of L.A.'s best Latin Jazz sidemen.

Bien Bien

Wayne Wallace

Wayne is on the verge of Latin Jazz superstardom. This could be his breakout year! One great CD after another is Wayne's way.

Frankly

Paquito Hechevarria

Great straight-ahead Latin Jazz versions of Sinatra tunes by Miami's "padrino del piano". Features Phil Woods and Andy Gonzalez.

Cantares*Ruben Blades*

An "unplugged" acoustic gem by latin music's number one poet. You really have to listen to the lyrics on this one.

A Million!Jimmy Bosch

A mixture of Salsa and Latin Jazz by Mr. "Salsa Dura" himself. I Like the extended version of "Foreclosure".

La Salida*Dislocados*

Hard driving Salsa all the way from the Ukraine. Hot rhythms, great vocals, intense Latin Jazz influenced arrangements, and great musicians who really know how to play Salsa.
